Defendants.)	SEAL

Defendant, Sergeant Dean Graziolli (“Defendant Graziolli”), by and through the undersigned counsel, pursuant to Local R. 5.2, moves this Court to for an Order granting Defendant permission to file the settlement agreement entered into by Plaintiffs on August 30, 2020 under seal.

Contemporaneously herewith, Defendant Graziolli filed a motion to enforce the Full and Final Release (“Release”) executed by Plaintiffs. The Release is incorporated by reference as if fully restated in the motion. Review of the Release by the Court is likely necessary to consider and rule upon the motion. This is particularly true if the Court needs to consider the entirety of the document, rather than referenced parts stated in the motion. Out of an abundance of caution, Defendant Graziolli seeks clarity to determine if it should be filed under seal, or as a public document. Accordingly, Defendant requests the Release be filed under seal, as per Local R. 5.2 which requires a court order before its filing. (All parties, except the Court, has a copy of the
